DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lasure et al. '910 in view of Blumenthal '321.

Lasure discloses all of the claim limitations in a similar device comprising a turning apparatus (10) that turns workpieces about an axis perpendicular to a plane of the workpiece. Additionally, the turning apparatus (10) has rotating devices that are capable of radial movement.

Lasure does not disclose a spacing apparatus that spaces said workpiece.

Blumenthal teaches the use of a spacing apparatus (fig. 4, 9a) that spaces workpieces from a first pitch to a second pitch (pitch change is shown in fig. 4) for the purpose of providing for a means to receive discrete parts traveling at a first pitch and apply the parts to a carrier/drum with an appropriate second pitch in order to facilitate transfer (C2/L62-63; C1/L22-27; C1-C3).

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to have employed the use of a spacing apparatus, as taught by Blumenthal, that spaces workpieces from a first pitch to a second pitch for the purpose of providing for a means to receive discrete parts traveling at a first pitch and apply the parts to the turning apparatus with an ensured appropriate second pitch in order to facilitate transfer.

Art Unit: 3651

Regarding claim 11, In Lasure the workpieces are turned one of clockwise or counter-clockwise.

Examiner's Note

3. Claim 1, not reciting any specific method steps or structure that provides for the radial movement of the rotating device, cannot differentiate from the prior art of record.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
